

Social Media Posts — [Lambe Oil & Westmeath Oil] — Week of [June 22nd]

lambe-oil · 21 June 2026

Weekly Social Media Posts (v2)

Lambe Oil & Westmeath Oil -- Week of June 22nd, 2026

Weather forecast (w/c 22 June): Dry and sunny to start the week with temperatures reaching 24-26C on Monday and Tuesday. A little cloudier in the west by Tuesday with isolated light showers, but warm and mostly dry elsewhere. Wednesday stays warm in the low to mid 20s. Thursday and Friday look set for very warm or hot conditions as continental air pushes in, with highs possibly reaching 30C.

Lambe Oil

Monday -- Silage season (53 words)

Silage season is in full swing across Offaly, Laois and Westmeath. With dry settled weather forecast this week, fields are busy and machinery needs fuel. We deliver agri diesel within 48 hours, so you're not waiting around when the weather's right. Give us a ring and we'll have you sorted. 057 932 1522.

Tuesday -- Summer heating oil top-up (52 words)

The sun's out and heating oil is the last thing on your mind. That's exactly when to top up. Summer's the quietest time for deliveries, so you'll get your oil fast and you won't be caught short when September rolls around. A quick call now saves a panic later. 057 932 1522.

Wednesday -- Mini tanker access (50 words)

Tight farm lanes and small yards are no bother. Our mini tanker gets into the spots the big trucks can't reach. Handy for harvest season when you need diesel on-site and you need it quick. If you're stocking up while the weather holds, give us a shout. 057 932 1522.

Thursday -- Calendar photo competition (58 words)

We've been delivering across the Midlands for years. Same family, same phone number. This summer we're making a 2027 Lambe Oil calendar and we want your photos. Send us your favourite local landscape or countryside shot to calendar@lambeoil.ie by 30 September. The twelve best make it to print and every customer gets a free copy in the post.

Sunday -- End of the week (59 words)

Sunday morning and the fields are quiet for once. It's been a warm week across the Midlands and the long evenings are still stretching out. If you spent it in the field or just sat out the back with a cup of tea, we hope you got to enjoy some of it. Back at it Monday. 057 932 1522.

Westmeath Oil

Monday -- Summer tank check (51 words)

With temperatures heading for the mid-twenties this week, take five minutes to check your oil tank. Look for leaks around the base, clear any weeds or debris, and check your gauge. A quick look now catches small problems before they turn expensive come winter. We're here if you need a top-up.

Tuesday -- HVO renewable diesel (45 words)

Ever heard of HVO? It's a renewable diesel that cuts carbon emissions by up to 90%. Drops straight into your existing engine, no modifications needed. If you want a greener option without changing your setup, we can talk you through it. Give us a ring.

Wednesday -- Spot our truck (53 words)

Spot a Westmeath Oil truck on the road this week? Snap a photo and tag us. We share the best one each week right here on our page. With deliveries running all across Westmeath and the Midlands in this warm spell, there's a good chance you'll see one of ours out and about.

Thursday -- Calendar photo competition (54 words)

We're putting together a 2027 Westmeath Oil calendar and we want your photos. Send us your favourite local Irish landscape or countryside scene to calendar@westmeathoil.ie by 30 September. The twelve winning photos go into print and every customer gets a free copy posted out before Christmas. Get the camera out while the weather's good.